

Mir Adnan Rahman- Associate Member PRF

Mir Adnan Rahman is an Academician of Law in the University of Azad Jammu & Kashmir and an activist working dedicatedly on the various perspectives of the Conflict of Jammu and Kashmir since 2009. After obtaining the degree of LL. B with Gold Medal from the University of AJ&K, he chose the Punjab University Law College as his Alma Mater for the degree of LL.M. Nowadays, he is also Ph.D Scholar in the field of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law from International Islamic University, Islamabad. He has been actively participating in various Conferences, Seminars, Panel Discussions and workshops related to the themes of legal dimension of the Kashmir Issue, Human Rights, International Humanitarian Law, Peacebuilding, Constitutional issues of all the divided regions and Conflict Analysis, Management and Transformation both Nationally and Internationally. He also wrote articles and reports related to few aspects of the Conflict of Jammu and Kashmir. He regularly contributes editorials in the online Magazine, “

Kashmir Insider'' highlighting the Indian atrocities in IOK.