

Umair Pervez Khan-Associate member PRF/ Associate Editor IJKS

Umair Pervez Khan is a passionate young researcher, holding an MPhil degree in International Relations from National Defence University (NDU), Islamabad. Having successfully completed (Bs Hons) Mass Communication Degree from National University of Sciences and Technology (NUST) Islamabad, is also a prolific Column writer in number of national Newspapers. He has an experience in News editing and has also remained attached with Standing Committee on Foreign Affairs, Senate of Pakistan. He has been serving as visiting faculty in COMSATs and IIUI for last one year. He is also currently working as an Associate Editor for International Journal of Kashmir Studies. His area of expertise is South Asian Affairs and dynamics of Kashmir conflict and has been actively participating in various national Conferences and Seminars. He has written several research articles published in national journals.